FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EIU STUDENTS INDUCTED INTO BETA GAMMA SIGMA

CHARLESTON -- Twelve students were recently inducted into Beta Gamma Sigma at Eastern Illinois University.

Beta Gamma Sigma is the honor society for collegiate schools of business. It is an international organization with 270 collegiate chapters and over 300,000 alumni living around the world.

Chapters are established at schools and colleges of business in the United States and Canada which are accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business.

Membership in Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest scholastic recognition a student can receive in an undergraduate or master's program in business and management. To be eligible for membership, a student must rank in the upper 10 percent of the undergraduate class or upper 20 percent of the master's class.

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 11,000 students are enrolled
